11 GODFREY O. MERE,
12 Plaintiff,

13 vs.

14 LAS VEGAS OPERATIONS, LLC, d/b/a
LIFE CARE CENTER OF LAS VEGAS,
15 Defendant.
16

CASE NO. 2:17-cv-00698-JCM-NJK

~~PROPOSED~~ STIPULATED
PROTECTIVE ORDER

17 COMES NOW Plaintiff Godfrey Mere ("Plaintiff") and Defendant Las Vegas
18 Operations, LLC, d/b/a Life Care Center of Las Vegas ("Life Care"), by and through their 19 respective counsel of record, and hereby stipulate to the following Protective Order pertaining to 20 discovery materials in this action.

21 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

22 Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or 23 private information by defendant Las Vegas Operations, LLC, d/b/a Life Care Center of Las 24 Vegas ("Life Care"), for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties
25 hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The 26 parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).
27 It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it 28 affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file confidential information under seal.

2. “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL

“Confidential” material shall include the following documents and tangible things produced or otherwise exchanged by Life Care: quality indicator reports, investigation files, personnel files for any employee other than Plaintiff, policies and procedures, and confidential or sensitive information concerning Life Care residents, employees, operations, business, practices, policies, and procedures.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Agreement cover not only confidential material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material. However, the protections conferred by this Agreement do not cover information that is in the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Agreement. Confidential material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Agreement.

4.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any confidential material only to:

(a) the receiving party’s counsel of record in this action, as well as employees of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

(b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of the

1 receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the parties
2 agree that a particular document or material produced is for Attorney's Eyes Only and is so
3 designated;

4 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this
5 litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

6 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

7 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 8 confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service
9 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately
10 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

11 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 12 reasonably necessary and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound"
13 (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of 14 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential material must 15 be marked "confidential";

16 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a
17 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

18 ~~4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or~~
19 ~~referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall indicate to the designating party~~
20 ~~what measures are being taken to protect confidential information and the designating party can~~ 21 ~~object or indicate a preferred alternative method including whether the designating party will~~ See order issued
concurrently herewith

23 ~~to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. The Local Rules of this Court set forth the~~ 24 ~~procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks~~
25 ~~permission from the court to file material under seal.~~

26 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

27 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party
28 or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this Agreement must take

1 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate
2 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material,
3 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the 4 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not
5 swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Agreement. Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized
6 designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have 7 been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or delay the case 8 development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the 9 designating party to sanctions. If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or 10 items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must 11 promptly notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

12 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 13 Agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 14 ordered, disclosure of discovery material that qualifies for protection under this Agreement must 15 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

16 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and 17 deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings),
18 the designating party must affix the word "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains 19 confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 20 protection, the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making 21 appropriate markings in the margins).

22 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings: the 23 parties must identify on the record, during the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all 24 protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony after 25 reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after receiving a 26 deposition transcript, designate portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential.

27 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place
28 on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word

1 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection,
2 the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

3 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 4 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party’s
5 right to secure protection under this Agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a
6 designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated
7 in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

8 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

9 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 10 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party’s confidentiality 11 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 12 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 13 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 14 original designation is disclosed.

15 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
16 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding confidential
17 designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in a declaration
18 or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer conference with other
19 affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The certification must list
20 the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-
21 to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

22 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court 23 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality with the 24 Court. The burden of persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous 25 challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary
26 expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties 27 shall continue to maintain the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the 28 challenge.

1 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
2 LITIGATION

3 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
4 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL," that party 5 must:

6 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 7 subpoena or court order;

8 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 9 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 10 subject to this Agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this Agreement; and

11 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 12 the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

13 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

14 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential
15 material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Agreement, the receiving 16 party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosures,
17 (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, (c) inform the 18 person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this 19 Agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the "Acknowledgment and 20 Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

21 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
22 MATERIAL

23 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 24 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 25 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This 26 provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery
27 order or Agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. Parties shall 28 confer on an appropriate non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502.

10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

Within 60 days after the termination of this action, all confidential information is to be destroyed. Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain confidential material. The confidentiality obligations imposed by this Agreement shall remain in effect until a designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.
